

A NIGHT O' DORIC

SATURDAY 28 MARCH 19:00 HOURS

ALVAH PARISH HALL AB45 3XA

Come and hear Peter Chapman present Doric songs, stories and poems and bothy ballads. Some will be nostalgic, some funny and some sad.

Peter is a farmer born and bred in Strichen. He is a great champion of Doric and promotes it at every opportunity. He is a collector of poems and songs by great Doric artists including John M Caie, Charlie Allan, Ian Middleton, John C Milne, Charles Murray, Helen Cruickshank, Flora Garry, GS Morris and Peter Buchan.

Supporting Peter will be the well-known local accordionist, George Rennie.

George lives in Banff and has played throughout Scotland and Northern England. He is a regular on the ceilidh, club, concert and bothy circuit.

Admission is £5. Bring your own bottle and picnic.

Tea, coffee and biscuits provided.
